

July 13, 2011

Kai's Kookies & More
bake and coffee shop

Kai's Kookies & More opens store at South End

Kai's Kookies & More LLC has opened its first 1,200 sq.ft. bake and coffee shop at the Crosland Center at 3905 South Blvd. The shop will create 3 new jobs and seat up to 14 people.

Kai's Kookies & More LLC is a family-owned bakery that specializes in handmade custom-designed cookies and cheesecakes. Tracy Watkins, a former electrical engineer who wanted to be more available to her daughter Kai, launched the cookie business with her husband Patrick in 2002. Today, Kai's Kookies & More products can be found in eight restaurants in the Charlotte area.

The new shop at the Crosland Center will open officially on Saturday, July 16 with free coffee, cookies, massages and a Kai's Kookies decorating contest.

Gregory Hardee of Keller Williams represented Kai's Kookies & More in lease negotiations. Ian Bruce of Merrifield Patrick Vermillion represented the owner of Crosland Center.

For additional information on Kai's Kookies & More LLC, please visit the company's website at www.kaiskookies.com or contact one of the following:

Tracy Watkins

Owner
Kai's Kookies and More, LLC
980-819-8256
contactus@kaiskookies.com

Eileen Cai

Director, Economic and Asian Development
Charlotte Chamber of Commerce
704-378-1316
ecai@charlottechamber.com