

273 Fortune 500 Companies Represented in Charlotte, NC

A major indicator of a city's economic strength and stability is the presence of Fortune 500 operations. The Fortune 500 list is compiled each year by Fortune magazine by ranking the annual revenues of large national and multinational corporations that are headquartered in the United States. Revenue does not have a direct relationship with profits or market value, but the list is a quantitative symbol of the scope, power and size of a particular company. Because revenues are unavailable for privately held companies, large corporations such as Charlotte's National Gypsum Company are not included in this list.

The companies on the Fortune 500 list represent an array of industries. They are also structurally diverse, ranging from partnerships and alliances to multiple business entities. It is no surprise that metro areas find it attractive to recruit these companies' headquarters due to the potential capital and labor investment and the extent of secondary investment. These headquarters also give global recognition to the city as a major center of business activity and contribute greatly to corporate giving for arts, education and cultural amenities in an area.

*Number of headquarters includes Family Dollar in Matthews, NC, which is in Mecklenburg County, but does not include Lowe's, which is located in Iredell County or Domtar, which is located in York County.

Seven of the 500 companies are headquartered in Mecklenburg County. This ranks Charlotte ninth nationally in number of Fortune 500 companies headquartered within the county. These headquarters represent more than $188.4 billion in revenue for 2010. Lowe's, which is headquartered in nearby Mooresville, increases the Charlotte area headquarters' revenue to $237.2 billion. More importantly, 273 of the Fortune 500 companies have made a commitment to the city by placing one or more of their facilities within the county. This report lists a key representative of each of the Fortune 500 companies that has a facility here.

The research for this detailed report was conducted by referencing the 2010 Fortune 500 list to Hoover's, Inc. The database lists all major affiliates of public companies headquartered in the United States. Affiliates were then cross-referenced to the local telephone book and on-line directories to produce a list of Fortune 500 affiliates that are located in Charlotte and Mecklenburg County. The goal of this report is not to link all Fortune 500 companies in the area to their parent; it is to identify a major holding of the parent in the Charlotte market to ensure their presence. Thus, all of the Fortune 500 affiliates that do business in Charlotte may not be listed in this report. Only those companies with major affiliates clearly identified by a physical office or location within the Charlotte area are included. One major office for each identified Fortune 500 company is listed with an address and phone number. Any additional subsidiaries are listed by name and can be referenced to the local phone directory for further contact information.

SEASONS OF CHARLOTTE

"Seasons of Charlotte," is a hard-cover photography book scheduled for release this year as a joint effort by the Charlotte Chamber and Patrick Schneider Photography.

For more than three years, Patrick Schneider has been focusing his photojournalistic eye on Charlotte. He's captured life throughout Charlotte, from events to environs, sports to spectacles, industry to individuals and so much in between. Today, Schneider's body of work (to which he adds new images daily) is the largest and most-comprehensive collection of contemporary Charlotte images.

To learn more about "Seasons of Charlotte" and to order an advanced copy, please email Andrea Ware at aware@charlottechamber.com.
